

Residential DESIGN & BUILD

Serving Architects and Custom Builders

February/March 2008

Codes drive CREATIVITY
in South Carolina page 18

■ Master suite serenity
page 28

■ Protecting design ideas
page 34

■ Green home earns gold
page 38

Green products

Klip BioTechnologies announces its EcoTop and EcoClad brands of green surface products. These indoor and outdoor composite surface materials boast a new and improved formula offering strength and durability. Each is composed of a certified 50/50 blend of bamboo fibers and recycled wood fiber salvaged from demolition sites.

For more info circle #37

Wicanders Cork Oak Floor is designed to balance natural beauty and an environmentally responsible resource. It absorbs acoustic vibration, reduces allergens and prevents thermal transfer, reducing energy costs.

For more info circle #40

Rheem Water Heating

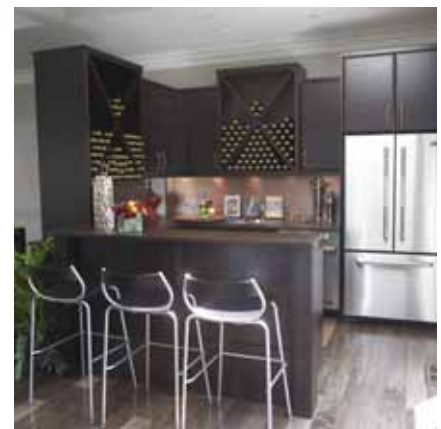

unveils a complete, 18-model lineup of ultra-low-NOx residential gas water heaters. This product features a newly developed and patented stainless steel radiant burner that slashes emissions to 10 nanograms per Joule, a 75 percent reduction from previous low-NOx models.

For more info circle #38

ProShield from Weather Shield Windows and Doors answers requests from builders and architects for green products through its environmentally conscious manufacturing processes, certified recycled material content and use of Zo-e-shield. It features two panes of glass with a condensation-reducing Real Warm Edge Spacer System and an inert-gas-filled airspace.

For more info circle #39

The Private Elite Collection of cabinetry from Terrell Goeke is created with formaldehyde-free construction materials and finishes. The collection bears the Environmental Stewardship Certification seal.

For more info circle #41